ADDITIONAL TERMS FOR CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

1. While serving the term of imprisonment, the defendant shall make installment payments toward his restitution obligation and may do so through the Bureau of Prisons' (BOP) Inmate Financial Responsibility Plan (IFRP). Pursuant to BOP policy, the BOP may establish a payment plan by evaluating the defendant six-month deposit history and subtracting an amount determined by the BOP to be used to maintain contact with family and friends. The remaining balance may be used to determine a repayment schedule. The Court expects that BOP staff will help the defendant develop a financial plan and monitor the inmate's progress in meeting his restitution obligation.
2. The remainder of restitution shall be paid in monthly installments of at least 10% of gross monthly income over a period of supervision to commence 30 days after the date of the defendant's release from custody.
3. The defendant shall notify, within 30 days, the Clerk of Court, the United States Probation Office (during any period of probation or supervised release), and the United States Attorney's Office, 86 Chambers Street, 3rd Floor, New York, New York 10007 (Attn: Financial Litigation Unit) of (1) any change of your name, residence, or mailing address or (2) any material change in your financial resources that affects your ability to pay restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §3664 (k). If you disclose, or the Government otherwise learns of, additional assets not known to the Government at the time of the execution of this order, the Government may seek a Court order modifying the payment schedule consistent with the discovery of new or additional assets. You shall pay interest on any restitution amount of more than $2,500, unless restitution is paid in full before the 15th day after the date of the judgment, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §3612(f)(1). The defendant's liability to pay restitution shall terminate on the date that is the later of 20 years from the entry of judgment or 20 years after the Defendant's release from imprisonment, as provided in 18 U.S.C. §3613(b). Subject to the time limitations in the preceding sentence, in the event of your death, your estate will be held responsible for any unpaid balance of the restitution amount, and any lien filed pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3613(c) shall continue until the estate receives a written release of that liability.
